Aims and Objectives

'Help Me To Help Myself'

Our fundamental belief is that the aims of education should be the same for all pupils, but those with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) may need more assistance in achieving these aims. This could encompass all children in the school at different times; therefore, a wide variety of strategies needs to be in place to enable all staff within the school to meet the needs as they arise.

This policy describes in detail the procedures and systems which are being established for meeting the objectives of providing an inclusive education for all children with SEND, whilst aiming to provide the entitlement of access to a full and balanced curriculum. It is of the utmost importance to ensure the independence of children, in their learning and their future life choices

Our Philosophy

All members of staff, in conjunction with the relevant authorities have a responsibility to ensure that every student has an equal opportunity to attain their maximum potential in all aspects of the curriculum. Appropriate, reasonable intervention will be provided in the light of on-going progress monitoring.

Aims

This policy is designed to develop excellent standards in the education, care and protection of vulnerable people in all that we do.

- Create a person-centred, inclusive environment where all pupils feel valued and supported.
- Identify and assess SEND early and provide tailored support.
- Ensure all pupils access a broad, balanced, and differentiated curriculum.
- Promote high aspirations and positive outcomes for pupils with SEND.
- Involve pupils and parents/carers in decision-making processes.
- Collaborate with external agencies to meet pupils' needs effectively.

Objectives

We will fulfil our aim through the following objectives:

- To create an ethos and educational environment that is person centred and has the views and needs of the child at its heart along with their families/carers.
- To identify and provide for students who have special educational and additional needs
- To fully adopt a graduated approach in line with the Special Educational Needs Code of Practice 2015 to ensure each student's needs are met with a view to maintaining the highest possible expectations for progress
- To clearly identify the roles and responsibilities of Academy staff and SEND Governor in providing an appropriate education for all SEND students
- To provide a differentiated curriculum appropriate to the needs of individual students
- To provide a focus on student outcomes to ensure appropriate levels of progress
- To provide appropriate opportunities for the social, moral and spiritual development of all SEND students and encourage full participation in the wider aspects of Academy life, with a long-term goal of developing positive self-esteem, greater independence and preparation for adult life.
- To involve all staff in training opportunities to enhance expertise across all relevant aspects of SEND
- To liaise with external agencies to provide appropriate levels of support to meet individual student needs
- To ensure that parents/carers and students are fully involved in the development of an appropriate curriculum to meet specific needs.
- To provide a timeline of student assessments, reviews, and reports to monitor progress against individual targets and to adjust support in the light of progress and the adopted graduated approach.

- To provide appropriate access to resources considering the whole Academy needs
- To review this Policy annually and amend as required
- To stretch and challenge students to realise their true potential commensurate with their peers
- To identify and implement Special Access Arrangements during internal and external examinations and assessments

Identification of SEND

The Code of Practice (2015) refers to four broad areas of need and support

- Communication and interaction
- Cognition and learning
- Social, emotional and mental health
- Sensory and/or physical needs

It should however be noted that individual students often have needs which cut across all these areas and their needs may change over time.

A definition of special educational needs

We recognise the definition of SEND as stated in the Code of Practice 2015:

“A pupil has SEND where their learning difficulty or disability calls for special educational provision, namely provision different from or additional to that normally available to pupils of the same age”. (p94)

A definition of disability

Discrete SEN	Both SEN & Disability	Disability
Mild Dyslexia Difficulties- (social factors) Mild Dyspraxia Minor Speech impairment Mild learning difficulties Speech & Language and Communication	Long-term motor impairment Learning difficulties Hearing impairment/deaf Visual impairment/blind Specific Learning Difficulty Dyslexia Epilepsy ADHD Autism (ASD) Other factors – medical/ mental health Social and Emotional Difficulties	Asthma Diabetes Cancer recovery Mental health issues Eating disorders Lack of limbs Sickle cell anaemia Gross obesity Very short stature Cerebral Palsy Brain injury Cystic Fibrosis AUTS2 Chronic Fatigue Incontinence

Identification of special educational needs

We recognise the importance of the early identification of children who may be facing challenges or difficulties in accessing the curriculum and/or in their personal and social development. Before the SENCo becomes involved we expect our teachers to use regular assessment, monitoring and observation and work with the Pastoral Team to identify students making less than expected progress given their age and individual circumstances. This can be characterised by progress which is:

- significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline
- fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress
- fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers
- widens the attainment gap

We also use several indicators to identify students' special educational needs.

- Close analysis of data including termly assessments, reading ages and annual student assessments.
- Any teacher or support staff concerns.
- Following up parental concerns.
- Tracking individual student progress over time.
- Liaison with feeder schools on transfer.
- Information from previous schools. Information from other services.
- Close liaison at the outset between the SENCo and parents.

We also recognise that slow progress and low attainment do not necessarily mean that a child has SEN and should not automatically lead to a pupil being recorded as having a SEN. However, the school may use this as an indicator of a range of learning difficulties or disabilities.

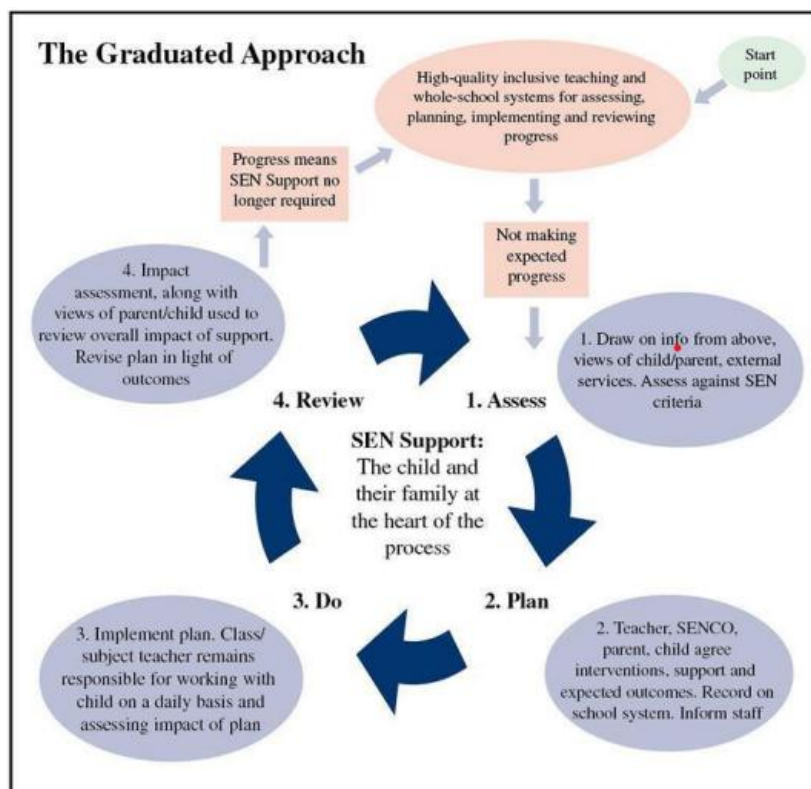

Equally, we do not assume that attainment in line with chronological age means that there is no learning difficulty or disability for that individual child. Some learning difficulties and disabilities occur across the range of cognitive ability and, if left unaddressed, may lead to frustration and the child becoming disaffected from education, or resulting in emotional or behavioural difficulties both within school and at home.

We will continually work with parents/carers to listen and hear their concerns that they may have in regards to their child's development and progress towards outcomes.

The SEND Code of Practice (January 2015) specifies 4 Broad Areas of Need here and this includes more specific needs;

Communication and interaction	Cognition and learning	Social, emotional and mental health	Sensory and/or physical needs
including Speech, Language and Communication Needs and Autism Spectrum Conditions	including Moderate Learning Difficulties (MLD), Severe Learning Difficulties (SLD) and Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties (PMLD) and Specific Learning Difficulties (Dyslexia, Dyscalculia, Dyspraxia)	including ADHD, ADD, Attachment Disorder or an underlying mental health need such as anxiety, depression, self-harming, substance misuse, eating disorders or physical symptoms not medically explained.	including hearing impairment, visual impairment, multi-sensory impairment, and any physical impairments.

Once a child has been identified as having SEN, the SENCo will ensure joint working with staff and parents to informally begin gathering evidence and start what is known as the Graduated Approach. At this point a pupil will be placed on the SEND register at SEN Support. This process will lead to the identification of the child's primary and, if required, a secondary need. The school will not delay in putting in place extra teaching or other rigorous interventions designed to secure better progress, where required.

Issues that may impact on progress and attainment but are not SEN issues include:

- Disability (the Code of Practice outlines the “reasonable adjustment” duty for all settings and schools provided under current Disability Equality legislation – these alone do not constitute SEN)
- Attendance and Punctuality
- Health and Welfare
- EAL
- Being in receipt of Pupil Premium Grant
- Being a Looked After Child
- Being a child of Serviceman/woman

Provision to support needs

A Graduated Response is adopted for students identified as having SEND. A level and type of support is provided to enable the student to achieve progress. Provision is identified and managed by the SENCo but will be planned and delivered by teaching and support staff

The Graduated Approach

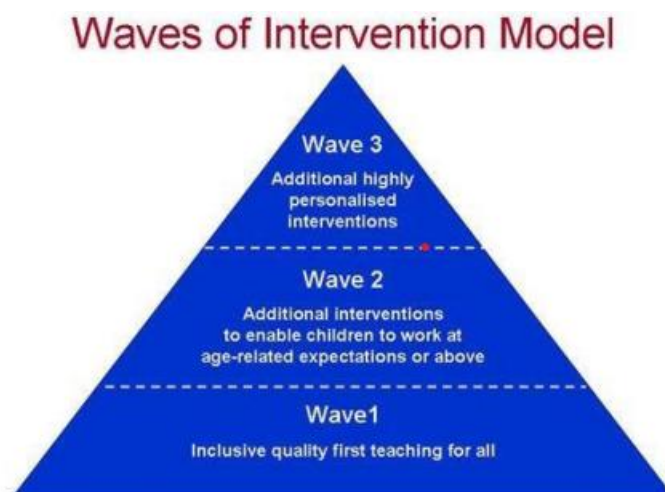

Assess: In assessing a child/young person the school will carry out an analysis of the student’s needs which draws on teacher assessments, experiences of the student and their previous progress and attainment will also be considered. The student’s own views are sought as are those of external support services if involved. The school liaises fully with outside agencies who are conducting the assessments. Any concerns by parents are actively listened to and recorded. Assessment is recorded termly.

Plan: We recognise that we must formally notify parents if their child is being provided with SEND support. The teacher and SENCo consult with the parent and student regarding adjustments, interventions and support to be put in place as well as the expected impact on progress (outcomes), development or behaviour along with a clear date for review.

Do: SENCo, and the Learning Support Assistants support the class or subject teacher in problem solving and advising on the effective implementation of support and in further assessments. The teacher remains responsible for working with the child. Where the interventions involve group or one to one teaching away from the classroom the subject teacher remains responsible for overseeing this and works closely with support staff involved to plan and assess the impact of support and how it can be linked to classroom teaching.

Review: Reviews are carried out termly. Some children have an EHCP (Education, Health and Care Plan). These must be reviewed by the Local Authority in partnership with the school at least annually. Reviews are arranged at school and are part of the SENCo's role. When we review we evaluate the impact and quality of the support and consider the views of the parents and students. This feeds back into the analysis of the pupil's needs. The teacher working with the SENCo will revise the support in the light of the student's progress and development and any changes to support and outcomes will be made in consultation with the parent and student. We strive to provide clear information to parents about the impact of support and interventions delivered enabling them to be involved in planning the next steps. In transition to another setting, information will be passed on and this may involve the SENCo attending meetings off site to support the transition process.

Waves of Intervention

Wave 1 – Quality First teaching by all teaching staff.

It is initially the role of the class/subject teacher with specialist knowledge of the student and their subject to make adjustments and interventions through the provision of high-quality teaching. Teachers are responsible and accountable for the progress and development of the students in their class including where the student accesses support from teaching assistants, specialist staff, SENCO or external agencies.

The Academy regularly and carefully reviews the quality of teaching for all students including those at risk of underachievement. This includes where necessary improving teachers' understanding of strategies to identify and appropriately support and challenge vulnerable students and those with identified specific needs. Additional intervention and support are not expected to compensate for a lack of high-quality teaching.

Where required an individual learning plan (ILP) will be implemented for relevant students.

Wave 2 - additional support from specialist SEND staff:

This is initiated where students have failed to make adequate progress as identified by the SENCO through the assessment arrangements as previously noted and through reports and recommendations from the subject teaching staff.

Criteria for Wave 2 include:

- Low numeracy/literacy scores
- Below or significantly below in Key Stage tests
- Teachers' observations
- Primary Teachers' comments
- Concerns from staff or parents

Provision from within the school's resources is identified to help meet the student's needs. Interventions may include:

- Additional learning programmes such as literacy and numeracy.
- A range of bespoke small group support sessions for wider pastoral issues such as Social skills / Lego Therapy / Handwriting
- Targeted focused support at EYFS, KSI, KS2
- Appropriate teaching groups/sets.
- Additional staff training.

The SENCo and relevant teachers consider all the information gathered about a student's progress alongside national data and expectations of progress; the student and their parents/carers are also involved in this process to ensure that there is clarity about any decisions regarding further levels of provision.

Wave 3

Where students fail to make adequate progress, despite additional provision at Wave 2, the Academy seeks advice and involvement from external support services (such as SENISS or Educational Psychologist) They are requested to:

- Provide specialist assessments.
- Give advice on teaching strategies or materials.
- Provide short-term support or training for staff.
- Dyslexia specialist sessions

The Individual Learning Plan is revised, and new strategies are put in place following the involvement of student and parents. Should the assessments identify that the student requires additional provision on a regular basis for an extended period then the school will apply for additional resources. The application will be evaluated against criteria established by the LA.

Wave 4

Statutory Assessment/Education, Health & Care Plan

If a student fails to make adequate progress and/or has demonstrated a significant cause for concern, the academy and/or parent/carer may decide to request that the LA undertakes a statutory assessment. This may lead to the student being provided with an EHC plan.

The SENCO is responsible for providing support and mentoring, allocates students with EHCP's or Top-Up funding a specified amount of support. The process of target setting, monitoring and reviewing remains the same as at Wave 2 and Teaching Assistants are fully involved in this process.

A statutory formal review of the EHCP will take place annually with all relevant parties invited.

Individual Learning Plan

The strategies that will be employed at Wave 2, Wave 3 and for students with EHC plans are recorded in the Individual Learning Plan and Tracking Sheets reflecting provision that is additional to, or different from, normal differentiated provision. All students with SEND have an Individual Learning Plan and their progress is closely monitored. This will be available for all staff to access.

Special Access Arrangements

Students who may be dyslexic, have cognitive processing difficulties, or a physical or sensory impairment may be eligible for Special Access Arrangements. Teachers will provide evidence of the student's difficulties and the SENCo will arrange for a specialist to assess the student for 25% Extra Time, a Reader, or a Scribe. The SENCo and Exam Officer will apply to JCQ for approval based on the test evidence gathered. The SENCo is responsible for organising and implementing the Special Access Arrangements in liaison with the subject teachers.

- The SENCO arranges a high-quality programme of CPD for the teaching assistants every week to keep up date with the changing diverse needs of the school community.

Allocation of Resources

The academy is funded to meet the needs of all its students through its core budget but is additionally funded to support provision for SEND through:

- Deprivation and underachievement factors, based on the number of students receiving free meals and those underachieving on entry.
- Funding for specific students to meet their assessed needs.
- Delegated and designated budgets.
- Also, in some part, the Pupil Premium.

The notional SEND budget is for school leaders to use in ways considered most appropriate in improving outcomes for students. It can for example be aligned with other funding (e.g. pupil premium) to optimise impact. The SENCo, along with other key staff in the school, has a key role in determining how this budget is used, for example to provide interventions and targeted support. The Local Academy Council oversees expenditure and therefore ensures resources are directed to support appropriate SEND provision as outlined in this policy. The school allocates SEND funding in the following ways:

- Learning Support Assistants, HLTA
- Adapted Curriculum and Small Learning Community
- Training for all Teachers and Learning Support Assistants so that they can meet students' needs more effectively.
